Jefferson Burgess Expresses Appreciation

Burgess Thomas Concybeer has expressed the great ap-preciation of the Jefferson com-munity for aid given in Fri-day's disastrous explosions and fine

"It is impossible to give names of all who helped in cluding the six fire companies and the state police," Burgess Concybeer said, "but they were all wonderful and their help was invaluable in dealing with the disaster and preventing it trom becoming worse. "It was an act of God that hings were not worse, Many hones, including my own, were filled with gas but were not destroyed," Mr. Concybeer said.

Charles Swan, son of John and Elizabeth (Lucas) Swan, born 1749, died February 25, 1839, aged 83 years and 14 days. He married Sarah Vanmeter, born 1758, died July 4, 1825, aged 67 years, 10 days. She was a daughter of Henry and Martha Vanmeter, who as a child had accompanied the Swan-Hughes-Vanmeter Party to settle in the Tennile Country, and history romantically records that during the dangerous journey, she had ridden the same horse with her future husband. Charles Swan took an early and active part in the Revolution, going out first as Ensign in Captain Jesse Pigman's Company in the Spring of 1777. (James Pribble Pension application, Nat. Arch. W. 3965).
On May 1, 1783, he was commissioned a Captain in the Pennsylvania Militia, serving under Lleut-Colonel Henry Enoch in the Second Battalion from Washington County. (Penna. Archives, Series VI, Vol. 2, pp. 75). (Name is mis-spelled or error in copy makes it "Sevan"). Serving after the Revolution Charles Swan rose to the rank of Colonel. Much has been written of the life of Charles Swan, was a man largely interested in the affairs of his community. He is especially noted for being one of the founders of Greene Academy. His first settlement was made on the south side of Muddy Creek, including a portion of the land on which Carmichaels was laid out, a tract of 356 acres of land warranted to him under the title of "Delay", on December 23, 1785. Here he is said to have erected the first slab sided house, where too the first Episcopal Church services were held. Charles Swan and his wife are buried in the Swan Cemetery near Rices Landing. Children of Charles and Sarah (Yannetor Swan)
Henry B. Swan, born March 12, 1774, died at Grave Creek, (West) Virginia, March 26, 1823. He married Elizabeth Bowen, who after the death of her husband, married William Burge.</l

One of their main farm jobs is to help maintain egg production at top levels throughout the year. This is done by providing farmers with auto-matic, low-cost control of their poul-try house lighting systems. Time switches are applicable for use with all lighting plans. Their task is to furn lights on and off, or to dim them, if desired, at stated intervals. The automatic control of lights relieves the farmer of one more manual chore. And the regularity of lighting inter-vals as provided through the use of time switches, has a beneficial effect on poultry. The basis of the second secon

On a Luxury Flight to Europe

In the top photo all passengers relax in deep pile lounge seats, or can go below to the cocktail lounge while flying direct from New York to London or Paris. On the overnight flights to either capital, delicious meals and complimentary cocktails are served enroute at no additional cost. Winter rates, now in effect, offer a substantial saving. Thousands of people wait for the first couple of months of any year to visit Paris, London or other European cities. The photo shows a capacity crowd on a Pan American World Airways "Strato" Clipper enroute direct to Paris, while the lower photo shows how berths are made up. A crew of nine men and girls fly the clipper and serve the passengers. ### Jesus is Christ Lesson for February 18, 1951

IT SOUNDS odd to modern ears

IT SOUNDS odd to modern ears (or to any ear for the past 18 centuries) to say that Jesus "is" Christ. It sounds like saying Abraham is Lin-is Churchill. "Jesus Christ" has become long since a proper name like any other combination

Dr. Foreman early days of Christianity it took sermons to persuade people that Jesus was indeed the Christ and if people knew what "Christ" means, they would see that most sermons to day are really aimed at convinc-ing people of the same thing: Jesus is Christ. When Peter said to Jesus "You are the Christ," Jesus's reply shows that Peter had not only said something impor-tant, but something which up to that time had not dawned on any one else.

 Gold Was in Christ
 The second place, when Peter called Jesus "Christ" he meant that God had anointed him. He was not a man who took a notion to do what he did; he was one whom God had anointed to be and to do as God willed. We be and to do as God willed. We cannot understand Jesus apart from God, for his source is God. Any one who reads the gospel of John will find this very prominent in Jesus' thinking always: "I was sent . . My meat is to do the will of him that sent me."
