Eighty-five-Year Deficit To Continue as Usual

—Washington—

The government began sliding back into the red this week after chalking up a $3,509,782,624.25 budget surplus for fiscal 1951, ended Sunday.

Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, who announced the final 1951 figures Monday, said government spending may exceed income as much as $3,500,000,000 over the next three months. Expenditures in July, August and September will continue heavy, but tax receipts will be seasonally light.

Furthermore, Snyder predicted, fiscal 1952 as a whole will pile up a $10,000,000,000 deficit "unless appropriate new taxes are enacted as soon as possible."

The House has voted a $7,200,000,000 tax hike. The Senate gives indications of making it less, despite the administration's insistence on a budget-balancing boost of $10,000,000,000.

The nearly $3,510,000,000 surplus of fiscal 1951 will go down in the books as the 76th in the nation's history. It was the biggest so far except for the $8,410,000,000 record setter of three years ago. The third largest surplus was $1,155,000,000, recorded 24 years ago.

Treasury records show 85 years of deficits.

The Treasury used $2,135,000,000 of the surplus to reduce the Federal debt to $255,222,000,000. It held the rest to add to the amount of cash it keeps on hand for operating expenses. This cash kitty now amounts to $7,357,000,000.

The $48,143,000,000 the government took in last year was about $11,100,000,000 more than fiscal 1950 government income.

Reasons for the big income growth were: (1) higher taxes; (2) inflation, which provided more individual and corporate income to be taxed; (3) a higher dollar volume of sales to be nicked for excise levies.

Expenditures in fiscal 1951, like income, were up. The total of $44,633,000,000 was $4,466,000,000 more than fiscal 1950 expenses.

Court Orders Juveniles to Children's Home

Judge J. I. Hook Friday in a court order directed placement of dependant, neglected and delinquent children in Greene County Children's Home.

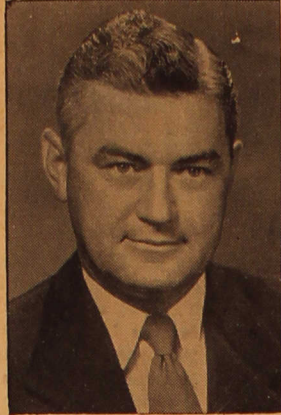

The June grand jury had recommended re-establishment of a detention home for delinquents.

Judge Hook at the time said he felt the detention home placed a stigma upon inmates.

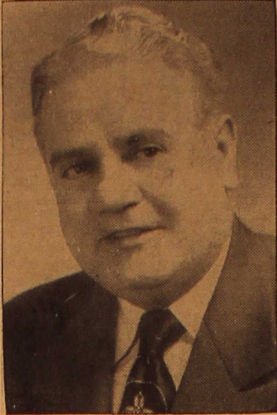

The court order:

"And now, June 25, 1951, it is hereby ordered that all dependant, delinquent or neglected children under the age of 16 years not permitted to remain in the control of his or her parents, or the person having him or her in charge of a probation officer, pending the final disposition of any case, shall be committed to the Children's Home of Greene County, Pennsylvania, located in Morgan Township, an institution for the keeping, care, education and training of all indigent orphans dependent upon the public for support and not otherwise provided for, incorrigible, indigent, dependant and neglected children of either sex under sixteen years of age, who shall be committed to said home by the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace acting as a Juvenile Court of the county, or by the county commissioners, etc., as provided by the Act of April 9, 1931, P. L. 22, amending the Act of May 16, 1921, P. L. 66; 11 PS 271."

TEXAS EASTERN PROMOTIONS

PAUL L. HUGUEN

EDWARD J. KENNELLY

Paul L. Huguen, appointed manager for Division 3 of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, will operate from the general offices of that division at Downingtown, Pa. Division 3 embraces the Texas Eastern operations in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

A veteran of World War II, since coming with Texas Eastern as engineering inspector in June 1947, Mr. Huguen has served progressively as assistant division manager of division 1 in North Little Rock, Arkansas and most recently as manager of division 4 in Baytown, Texas. Almost continuously since receiving a degree in civil engineering from Louisiana Polytechnic Institute in 1937, he has been engaged in the natural gas and natural gas pipeline industry, having worked as engineer for the Southwest Natural Gas Company and for United Gas Pipe Line Co., both of Shreveport, La.

Edward J. Kennelly, new manager of Division 5 for Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, will be located at the Division Office at Lebanon, Tenn.

Formerly division manager for Texas Eastern at Downingtown, Pa., Mr. Kennelly has been with the company since 1947. For almost 25 years Mr. Kennelly has been associated with pipelining during which time he has progressed from laborer through almost every job in the industry to his present position. His experience includes some 20 years with Texas Pipe Line Company, with War Emergency Pipelines, Inc., and with the Williams Brothers.

Texas Eastern's division 5 will include the area from Kosciusko, Miss., to the northern boundary of Kentucky along the route of the company's projected new 30-inch natural gas transmission line from Kosciusko to Connellsville, Penna.

Peace Negotiations to Open Sunday in South Korea

Is The Peace Move Sincere?

If the Kremlin proves to be genuinely in earnest about a Korean peace, says The Christian Science Monitor, it will mean that the western powers have succeeded in preventing a "decisive break-through" by Communist imperialism in Asia, even as they stopped a similar break-through attempt at Berlin and in Greece.

If the status quo is indeed restored at the 38th parallel, the question then will become: Where else along the far-flung perimeter of the world struggle is Russia, relieved of its Korean entanglement, likely to try for another "decisive break-through"? Will it be in tottering Iran, or against beleaguered Yugoslavia?

Most certainly the Kremlin has hoped—during the Berlin blockade, during the Greek "civil war," and surely in Korea—to achieve not merely a limited geographical gain, but to win a victory which could be exploited to the full on the whole military-diplomatic-propaganda front—an effective break-through that would collapse and rout the entire opposition erected against Communist imperialism in that global sector.

Thus in Korea, if the North Koreans and Communist Chinese could have expelled the forces of the United Nations, this would have been expected to corrode and destroy every kind of defense farther southward in Asia, making possible an easy Communist sweep through Indo-China, Burma, and Malaya.

But the attempt to stampede the anti-Communist alignment has failed in Korea, even as it did during the period of the Berlin blockade, when any succumbing to the Soviet maneuver, any retreat from Berlin, would have well-nigh destroyed the will to resist not only in West Germany but in France and Italy, as well.

There is no sure information as to why the rulers in the Kremlin may have decided to terminate the Korean adventure—if so they have. Nor can anyone be sure why Peiping has shown somewhat less enthusiasm for a Korean cease-fire than has Moscow. But it long has been the opinion that Russia touched off the Korean aggression strictly for Russia's own purposes, and not as the result of any desire to install Chinese influence in Korea.

Getting the war ended is considered desirable because it would remove a situation which could produce a "rash" act on either side which would carry the world "beyond the point of no return."

On the other hand, a settlement which merely freed Chinese Communist hands for a new adventure in Asia or Russian hands for another one in Europe would be no gain—and might be a grave loss.

Preliminary talks on peace in Korea will begin next Sunday in the Kaesong area near the Thirty-eighth Parallel.

General Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme United Nations commander, had proposed that talks begin Thursday but the Reds at first asked for a 10-day delay.

Now, however, the path seems clear for the beginning of negotiations without further delay.

"Since agreement on armistice terms has to precede cessation of hostilities, delay in initiating a meeting and in reaching agreement will prolong the fighting and increase the losses," Ridgway's statement said.

"To insure efficient arrangement of the many details connected with the first meeting, I promise that not to exceed three of my liaison officers have a preliminary meeting with a member of yours in Kaesong July 5, or as soon thereafter as practicable."

There appeared little doubt all of the Allied nations—except possibly South Korea—agreed to the Chinese and North Korean suggestion that the talks be held in the Kaesong area near the 38th Parallel starting next Sunday.

Korean leaders have consistently opposed any settlement short of complete unification of Korea.

Fighting in Korea continued meanwhile, although on a reduced scale.

Allied air power however, showed no signs of relaxing pulverizing attacks. Communist airfields in North Korea were cratered anew. Fiery napalm splashed into Red supply areas. Fighter-bombers hammered enemy frontline defenses.

The United Nations command is expected to use its 163,000 Red prisoners to the maximum advantage in bargaining for the release of an unknown number of Allied soldiers behind enemy stockades.

The UN command has a big numerical advantage in the number of Communist captives now held in South Korean camps. This bargaining advantage is offset to some degree, however, by the Oriental disregard for individual lives.

Only 159 Americans were known prisoners of war on June 22. But on that date the list of missing Americans stood at 10,680. No recent total of missing among the other UN units in Korea is available, but three months ago the number was about 400.

The United States Department of State has warned that vigilance must not be relaxed in prospect of a cease-fire order.

Jacktown Fair Installs New Lighting System

Richhill Agricultural Association has ordered a new permanent lighting system around the Jacktown Fairground at athletic field. Installation of lights will enable Richhill High to play football at night.

The annual Jacktown Fair will be presented August 28, 29 and 30. The grounds are being put into fine condition.

Directors of the fair are: Floyd Campbell, O. I. Dille and W. B. Hughes of Wind Ridge; Ross Burns of Waynesburg; J. E. Dinsmore, West Finley R. D. 3; C. J. Behm, Bristoria, and a new member, Raymond McCracken of Sugar Grove.

Boro Accepts C of C Offer To Avoid Fines

Waynesburg Borough Council Monday night approved the offer of Waynesburg Chamber of Commerce to supply nickels for parking meters as a courtesy to cars from out of the state which are parked overtime.

A nickel will be placed in the meter by the officer who will also place a pink envelope on the car stating that the overtime had been paid by the local chamber of commerce.

Council decided to change the timing of red lights on High street, as suggested by Burgess R. Wallace Maxwell as a means of relieving traffic. Time of green lights will be lengthened.

Mrs. Rona T. Wiley, borough tax collector, was appointed collector for the new mercantile and amusement taxes which went into effect this week. She will act in that capacity on a percentage basis as is now done in collecting tax on real estate.

Lewis Shultz, proprietor of the Shultz Service Station at Washington and Greene streets, presented a complaint that automobiles are parking in his driveway during business hours. Council requested him to take license numbers of these cars and turn them over to police.

A request by K. A. Rohanna for permission to build a fence near the intersection of Franklin and East streets was referred to the street committee. Also referred to the street committee was a request by James Sprowls and Mrs. William Webster that a street line and grade line be run by borough engineers on Liberty street.

28th Division to Participate In 'Southern Pine' Maneuvers

Pair Held for Store Burglaries

Calvin B. Howard, 25 years, of Bloomsburg R. D. 3, was arrested last week by Sheriff Emil Fox and Private Harold Russell of the State Police, on a charge of larceny and burglary in connection with the theft of $500 in checks and cash from the safe in the Edward Lemmon store at Nettle Hill on June 21.

Downey Debolt, Jr., of Cameron R. D. 1, a friend of Howard's, had been arrested previously on burglary and larceny charges in connection with the robbery of the William Thomas store and also the Lemmon store.

Howard was apprehended in a hotel in New Kensington. Merchandise and $275 in cash were recovered. In the room was new clothing which Howard admitted, police said, was purchased after the burglary.

Police stated Howard was not implicated in the burglary June 16 of the Thomas store, but was in the robbery of the Cameron Hardware Store.

The pair are held in Greene County jail.

—Camp Atterbury, Ind.—

The entire 28th Infantry Division will take part in the huge "Southern Pine" maneuvers at Fort Bragg, N. C., during August and early September.

"Southern Pine" is the largest routine training maneuver to be scheduled in the United States since the end of World War II. A joint Army-Air Force exercise, the present plans for the operation include all phases of tactical operation by the two forces.

The 28th Division, under the command of Major General Daniel B. Strickler, will leave Camp Atterbury and move to North Carolina in several stages beginning in late July.

An advance detachment, comprising service personnel to prepare the camp site at Fort Bragg, will be the first to leave Indiana near the end of the first week in August in troop trains and motor convoys. A rear detachment will depart after final cleaning up is completed at Camp Atterbury.

No plans for the future of the 28th after maneuvers have been announced as yet.

School Course in Auto Driving

A course in automobile driving will be added to the curriculum in Waynesburg High School this fall, W. Walter Montgomery, supervising principal of borough schools, has announced.

A teacher will be employed and applications from qualified persons are now being received.

The school board is still receiving applications for a male instructor for health education for seventh and eighth grades. The instructor who is to organize a secondary athletic program, may hold either a secondary certificate in health and physical education or an elementary certificate.

Applications are also being received for four teaching positions in fourth, fifth and sixth grades. These positions were made necessary since Washington Township plans to transfer all pupils from grades 1 to 6 to Waynesburg schools.

The school board will meet Tuesday, July 10.

Sergeant Held In Cutting Affray

Master Sergeant Kesle Musgrave, 27 years, stationed at Camp Atterbury, gave $500 bond Sunday, on a charge of aggravated assault and battery, in a fracas Saturday night in the Wayne Hotel grill, in which Charles G. Lemley, 35 years, a dairyman, was cut around the mouth and chin. He also suffered shoulder and side wounds.

Musgrave was cut on the left hand. He will appear for a hearing July 23, before Justice of the Peace John Daily.

Police arrested Musgrave at Wind Ridge when he went to a doctor's office for treatment for his hand. He has returned to Camp Atterbury.

U. S. Surplus 2nd Largest

—Washington—

The fiscal year 1951 ended with the government assured of the 76th budget surplus in its history, and the second largest of the lot.

Prospects are that the surplus—the excess of income over expenditures for the last 12 months—will be about $3,300,000,000 when the final tabulations are finished by the Treasury.

That is far short of the $8,419,000,000 record-high surplus of fiscal 1948, but it doubled the $1,155,000,000 second-high surplus of the past, recorded 24 years ago, when Calvin Coolidge was President.

However, this may be the last surplus for some time. Billions of dollars of red ink spending are in prospect for the years just ahead unless Congress boosts taxes higher than it now seems disposed to do, or unless the administration's planned expenditures are changed.

Don't Call 'em GIs, Army Says

—Washington—

The slang expression "GI" has been ruled out for Army public relations officers. They'll have to refer to a soldier as a soldier.

In ordering this in Liaison Bulletin 242 of the Army Public Information Division, issued June 15, the Army said:

"The term soldier is ancient and honorable. Webster's dictionary defines a soldier as 'a skilled warrior.' And never before in history has a soldier so richly deserved this definition."

18 Japs Finally Give Up on War

—Guam—

Eighteen Japanese soldiers of World War II surrendered Sunday to a U. S. Navy tug at San-tan Island in the Marianas, convinced after seven years that Japan lost the fight.

The hold-outs who had waited since dawn for the Navy to come and get them, stood at rigid attention as a rubber boat from the tug U. S. S. Cocopa neared the beach. They flew a surrender flag.

The 18, with ashes of dead comrades strapped to their backs, bowed a formal farewell to the island home, and stepped gingerly aboard the tug.

They were brought here and eventually will be sent to Japan.

Federal Jobs Show Increase

The Civil Service Commission reported that Federal employment is increasing faster outside Washington than in it.

The commission said in the first three months of the year the increase in the Washington metropolitan area was 7 per cent while that outside the capital was 9 per cent.

California held its lead over the other states with about 238,000 Federal employees compared with 243,600 in the Washington area. Other states: New York, 182,600; Pennsylvania, 139,400; Texas, 108,600; and Illinois, 103,000.

A FABLE

In the reign of Queen Elizabeth there was an Inflation and a Panic that lasted twenty-five years. There was only one sound industry left in England: the Highwayman Business.

The Queen, being worried about it, sent Gresham to Holland to learn what to do. When he came back he advised that the Queen should also go into the Highwayman Business.

This she did, and in a few years Drake and hundreds like him stole enough Gold to stop the panic. In order to get some Gold for themselves the people went to Work and pretty soon set England on her feet again.

'The Tenmile Country and Its Pioneer Families'

(COPYRIGHT, 1950, By HOWARD L. LECKEY)

LAND TITLES

The above Proclamation answers a number of questions that are frequently asked. It also refutes the statements frequently found in Family Histories, that land in the Tenmile Country was granted for military service. Virginia promised and gave land for services in the French and Indian War, Dunmore's War, and the Revolution, and Pennsylvania set aside land which it granted for service in the Revolution. But none of these grants lay within the present borders of Washington, Greene, or Fayette Counties. The military land granted by Pennsylvania lay in the north western counties of the State, while Virginia set aside a large acreage for that purpose on the western bank of the Scioto River, north of the Ohio. It explains the rush to secure legal titles in the period from 1779 to 1788. For all practical purposes it disposed of the mythical tomahawk rights, corn grants, and squatters rights, though these were sometimes later settled by purchase rather than taking the matters through the Courts. In a way too, it accounts for some of the migration westward during these years. Persons without legal titles obtained through either Pennsylvania or Virginia, found it more profitable to buy up unimproved land in Kentucky, Virginia, and Ohio, than to pay the fees demanded by Pennsylvania. It is true that much land was patented at a later date than 1788, some even in the late years. Much of this land was probably considered valueless, while much of it was also abandoned by the first purchasers and reverted to the State again. Some of it was overlooked in the earlier surveys, and only taken up when it became valuable for the coal that was found underneath the surface. The late patents are noted to have been secured during the coal, gas, and oil leasing, and are for small overlooked triangles or worthless stream beds, rocky hillsides, or swamp lands. The Proclamation also explains the legend "by virtue of a Virginia Certificate" which is found so often in the patent specifications.

ABNER BROWN

Abner and Ebenezer Brown, said to have been brothers, and Paul Brown, were members of Captain Benjamin Stites' Militia Company from Morgan Township. Abner Brown received patents for two tracts of land between the land of Levi Harrod and Tenmile Creek, one on February 20, 1786, and the other on March 22, 1796, for a total of about 265 acres. His wife was Abigail Luse, daughter of Eleazer and Jerima Luse. In the Spring of 1805, Abner Brown, Sr., with his brother, Ebenezer, and Abner Brown, Jr., removed to Knox County, Ohio, where they erected the first grist-mill, an entirely wooden structure on Delano's Run above the Martinsburg Road. The building was about ten feet square and made of rough logs, and when the stream was full of water, had no difficulty in supplying the neighborhood with its corn meal, ground in a sort of sugar trough. Abner Brown, Sr., died in Knox County, Ohio, where his will was proven on October 29, 1827. The will had been made on August 28, of the same year. The children below are named in the will.

Children of Abner and Abigail (Luse) Brown

1. Abner Brown, Jr.
2. Ebenezer Brown.
3. Mary Brown.
4. Jeremiah Brown, who, on April 16, 1816, married in Ohio, Margaret Merritt.
5. Aaron Brown.

THE BIGGS FAMILY

The Census for Washington County, Pennsylvania, shows a widow, Abigail Biggs, living on the land between Abner Brown, Sr., and Abner Brown, Jr., in what is now Morgan Township, Greene County. She was the widow of Captain John Biggs, who was captured and burned at stake on the Crawford Expedition. It is thought that she was a daughter of Abner Brown, Sr., whose wife was Abigail Luse.

Benjamin Biggs, father of Captain John Biggs, was born in Marbletown, Ulster County, New York, April 28, 1723, and died in West Liberty, Ohio County, West Virginia, November 1782. His wife was Henrietta Prudence Margaretta Munday, whom he married September 26, 1745, in All Saints Church, Frederick, Maryland. She died May 16, 1807, at West Liberty at the age of 79 years. Benjamin Biggs sold his land in Maryland in 1769 to his brother William Biggs and moved first to Fort Cumberland and then to Beesons Fort (Uniontown) where he was taxed in 1772, then in 1774, he removed to Black's Cabin in Ohio County, (West) Virginia, where he died. Six of his sons were famous Indian fighters.

Children of Benjamin and Henrietta (Munday) Biggs

1. Prudence Biggs, born 1748, died 1777.
2. Catherine Biggs, born February 1, 1750, married James Moore.
3. John Biggs, born December 27, 1751, married Abigail Brown (?).
4. Henry Biggs, born January 31, 1753, died November 26, 1774.
5. Benjamin Biggs, twin of Henry Biggs.
6. William Biggs, born June 3, 1755.
7. George Biggs, born January 31, 1758, took Oath of Allegiance in Ohio County in 1777.
8. Thomas Biggs, born May 19, 1760.
9. Joseph Biggs, born May 2, 1762.
10. Zacheus Biggs, born June 1, 1764.
11. Mary Biggs, born June 3, 1767, married James Moore after the death of her sister. They lived on Buffalo Creek, Ohio County.

FAMILY OF CAPTAIN JOHN BIGGS

Captain John Biggs, born December 27, 1751, son of Benjamin Biggs, was appointed a lieutenant of militia at the first session of the Virginia Court at Blacks Cabin on Short Creek, Ohio County, in January 1777, and took an active part in the defense of the frontiers. He was a frequent visitor to the Tenmile Country where his wife's people had settled. He was chosen one of the captains at Mingo Bottoms on the Sandusky Expedition and was captured and burned at the stake. He had performed with outstanding bravery on the Expedition, saving the life of a wounded brother officer who had been badly injured. He was in possession of an Indian Scalp when captured, a fact that may have hastened the death of Captain Biggs, for both he and the officer whom he had saved were murdered before the Colonel. The story of his death was told by Dr. Knight. At the time of his death in June 1782, it is not likely that Captain John Biggs was father of more than five or six children, and certainly not nine as given by one of the Ohio historians. After the death of Captain John Biggs, his wife, Abigail, returned to her people on the Tenmile, living on land of Abner Brown, Sr., adjoining the land of Levi Harrod. As her children went to Knox County, Ohio, about 1804, it is most likely that she went with them to that place.

WHEN YOUR "E" BONDS MATURE

The Treasury Department offers three choices to holders of Series E, United States Defense Bonds, when their Bonds mature:

Choices: You may: One, accept cash, if you so desire; Two, continue to hold the present bond with an automatic interest-bearing extension; Three, exchange your bonds in amounts of $500 or multiples for a Defense Bond of Series G, which earns current income at the rate of 2½ percent payable semi-annually.

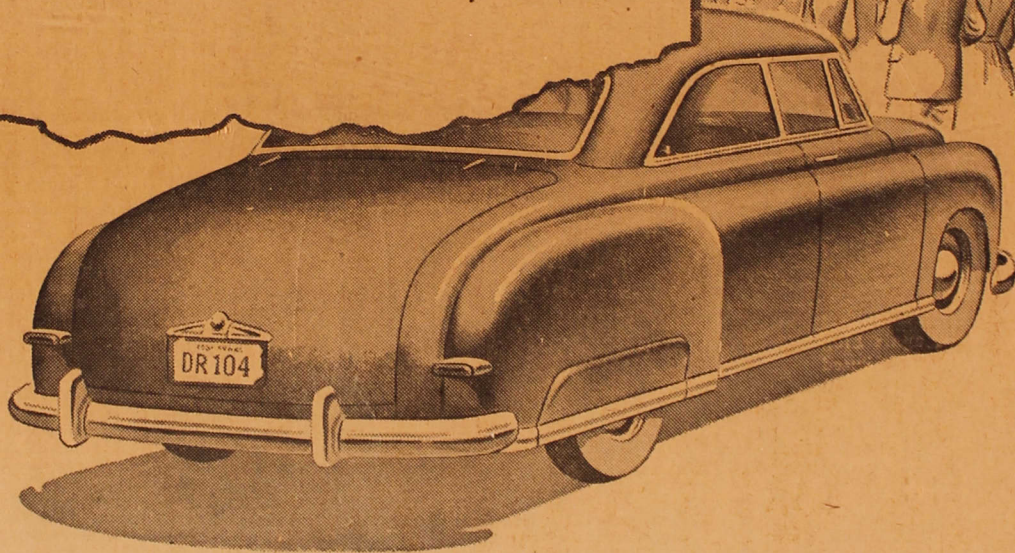

Action: If you want to obtain cash, you simply present your bond, with proper identification, to any paying agent. If you want to extend the matured bond you have ABSOLUTELY NOTHING TO DO—just continue to hold it. Extended bonds may be cashed at any time you wish. If you want a G Bond, see your bank for details.

Interest: The extended bond will earn simple interest on the face amount at the rate of 2½ percent for the first seven and one-half years. Thereafter it will be at a higher rate sufficient to provide a total return for the 10-year extension period of 2.9 percent compounded.

Taxes: You have the choice of (1) reporting E Bond interest for Federal income taxes on an annual basis or (2) paying the taxes on the interest in the year when the bonds finally mature or are redeemed. The privilege of deferring taxes does not apply if the E Bond is exchanged for a G Bond.

INTERDEPENDENCE IS AMERICAN, TOO

Individual independence is a traditional American characteristic.

But there are certain things for which we must depend upon each other, certain personal advantages we Americans forgo for the benefit of others. By such trifling surrenders of private freedom, we not only grow in moral stature, but we keep the day-by-day behavior of society on a high plane.

That's the principle behind the laws established for safety on the highway. Individual liberty doesn't mean license for anybody to defy the rules of the road designed for the protection of everybody. We can still preserve our liberties—probably our lives, too—if we drive legally, safely and sanely.

This July 4th we celebrate the liberty purchased with the blood of Americans. Don't desecrate this hallowed day by shedding the blood of other Americans on our streets and highways. Give the other fellow his rights ... and a little bit more!

Interdependence — like Independence — is typically American!

PENNSYLVANIA'S STATE POLICE ... DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE ... GOVERNOR'S HIGHWAY SAFETY ADVISORY COMMITTEE ... DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS ... DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION ... ALL ARE WORKING CEASELESSLY TO MAKE PENNSYLVANIA'S HIGHWAYS THE SAFEST IN THE NATION.

WILL YOU CO-OPERATE? BE ON THEIR SIDE—THE SAFE SIDE!

Fifty-Year History of Greene County Sports

By GEORGE N. THOMAS

COUNTY BASKETBALL NINEVEH

Nineveh High School, just before the outbreak of World War I, found it convenient to sponsor a basketball team.

It didn't matter that the boys had to practice in a converted barn. They loved to, play and they loved the game.

From the beginning Nineveh aimed high. In their very first winter of competition they scheduled the county champions, Waynesburg. But Waynesburg had George Black in its lineup. He personally made the country lads sorry they decided to play. Still they weren't discouraged. With McKee and Hammers showing the way, they plugged away at a limited schedule. Transportation in the western end of the county was a problem in the old winters.

While the recruits learned basketball, most foes used Nineveh as a trampling rug. Rogersville especially delighted in humiliating them.

But the school closed, not to reopen until 1922.

Because there was no school, Nineveh lads formed teams under other banners—church and independent.

In the mixed team of 1916-17 were Clutter, H. Black, S. Black, Cain and Lightner. H. Black and Lightner were usually high scorers.

During the early years, the school was not always referred to as Nineveh. It was often called Morris Township High. But it made little difference to the team. They fought just as hard.

Happier days were in the making for Nineveh fans in the early twenties when their team romped over county opponents like Jefferson once in a while.

McVay, Phillips, Longdon, Hunt, and Andrew were in the lineup at the time. McVay was quite a star and very dependable on offense.

The Throckmortons, who owned a garage across the road from the little country school, threw it open to the young athletes. So, in 1924, Nineveh was able to revive a scholastic card.

But because of transportation and facilities, the high school boys never seemed to get enough games.

Again the community went for independent basketball and were successful. One year they won 22 out of 23 contests. They stuck together three seasons.

While they wore high school colors on certain nights, boys such as Raymond Finch, Earl Mankey and Jake Porter made hay against independent foes as well.

Also playing with this combination were Ed McGreevy, Lynn Bane, Bill Funk, Frank (Jack) Johnson and Eugene (Spotty) Clark.

It wasn't until 1928 that the community built a schoolhouse with an indoor court.

One of the school's best teams was organized in the 1925-26 season. Funk, Tustin, Mankey, Clutter, Johnson, Bane and Boyer were with the team at the time.

They trimmed teams such as Blacksville, Rogersville and Mapletown. And when they humbled Beallsville, Earl Mankey scored 24 points, all field goals, for a school record.

Two years later, Mankey was

Bow, Arrow Hunting OK'd

—Harrisburg—

Bow and arrow hunters will be permitted to roam the length and breadth of Pennsylvania hunting deer under a new state law.

A measure authorizing the State Game Commission to fix dates for a special bow and arrow season apart from the regular deer season has been signed by Governor John S. Fine.

Dates and length of the season, in addition to the type of deer that may be killed, will be fixed by the commission.

The archers, who claim their numbers are growing all the time, will pay an extra $2 fee in addition to the regular $3.15 hunting license fee to stalk deer.

Bow and arrow hunting of deer previously has been confined to two 1,000-acre tracts in Sullivan and Forest counties. It will now be permitted wherever deer is legally hunted.

The new law restricts the archers' deer hunting to use the traditional long bow with no mechanical aids. It bans the use of explosive tips on arrows.

Hitting the High Spots

By JACK HAMMERS

Play in the County Pony League, if nothing else, is bringing smiles to a couple of district High School coaches. Last week Bill Evely of Rices Landing, and Bobby Korcheck of Nemaacolin, tossed perfect games for their respective teams. With these two about to enter high school, and with the experience gained in league play, they should be valuable recruits for the diamond squad.

Lyman Stough, former Waynesburg College basketball and grid star, who just completed his first season as basketball coach at Irwin High School, has been called for army service. Pete Balaban, another Yellow Jacket grid star, is already in the Marine Corps, and is taking his boot training at Paris Island, South Carolina.

Coach Jack Wiley of Waynesburg College, finds himself with a tough schedule this fall. Although he has not stated so, it is generally believed, and hoped by most fans, that he will use the old "rock 'em, sock 'em" single wing. Regardless of what system he installs for the boys from College Heights, we feel sure the Jackets will make things very interesting for all eight foes.

Horses to be Weeded At Wheeling Downs

—Wheeling, W. Va.—

Racing Secretary Richard A. Leigh and his Wheeling Downs stall committee now appreciate the plight of the old woman who lived in a shoe. There are seven hundred and fifty odd stalls at this island plant awaiting the thoroughbreds which will compete in the 61-day race meeting opening on July 21. Owners and trainers representing every section of the United States and parts of Canada have applied for accommodations for more than 1,500 horses, so the committee is subjecting each application to an exacting screening process. Under a new policy adopted this season, no horses stabled outside the grounds will be permitted to run, which makes it doubly necessary that space in the Downs stabling area be occupied only by sound, capable performers. As a result, what promises to be the best all-round band of thoroughbreds ever assembled in West Virginia will parade their talents for tri-state racing fans. Mr. Leigh has arranged a well-balanced program for the first phase of the meeting, featured by the Inaugural Handicap for opening day.

This season will mark the fifth consecutive season that the Steeler eleven has taken over the nationally-known Polish college as a training headquarters. The club first went to Alliance in 1947 when the late Dr. John B. (Jock) Sutherland was head coach. The following year his successor and current head coach, John Micholosen, took his first pro club there. He has continued to do so for the past three campaigns.

Although Micholosen has not set a definite date for the opening of the camp, it is felt that the players will report during the first week in August. The Steelers will open the season with a non-conference game with the Philadelphia Eagles in Hershey, on August 19.

Justice Department Enters Feud Between Penn and NCAA

—Philadelphia—

The Justice Department Friday told the University of Pennsylvania it has ordered a sweeping investigation of televising college football games.

At the same time, a department spokesman made it clear that the government has not approved the National Collegiate Athletic Association plan of limiting football TV.

The fundamental issue is whether or not the NCAA program is legal or whether it violates federal anti-trust laws.

Francis T. Murray, Penn's athletic director, made public the text of a letter to him from H. G. Morison, assistant attorney general, in which Morison asserted that the Justice Department has not "either formally or informally approved the NCAA's television moratorium."

It was the latest move in the long-simmering feud between Penn and the NCAA over the question of televising games next fall.

Tom Hamilton, chairman of the NCAA's television committee, immediately issued a blast against Murray.

"There is no question in our minds of the legality of our position," Admiral Hamilton said in a statement. "Franny Murray of Pennsylvania, is again trying to muddy up the water and subvert the will of the community of colleges in order to accomplish the desires of one institution's interests."

Hamilton, director of athletics at the University of Pittsburgh, said the NCAA has stated previously:

"The NCAA has placed before the Department of Justice all the information it has on its actions, resolutions and plans in regard to television. The Department of Justice has indicated it is studying the matter, x x x we are proceeding with our plan, but naturally will cooperate to the fullest to give the Department of Justice every assistance."

The State Police Say:

A solid white line means NO PASSING. A broken line means PASS HERE, if you have sufficient traffic free distance in the oncoming lane as required by your rules of safe driving.

Rogersville came out second best in a 4-way tourney. Captain Bristor proudly strolled up to Judge Ray and accepted a bronze cup while a host of Rogersville fans cheered wildly.

The next year, R. Scott, O. Crouse, T. Stahl, D. Kent, E. Phillips, H. West, T. Crouse, and J. Schaffer filled Rogersville uniforms.

Scott was key man but they didn't place in the big tourney. Outside teams were allowed to enter and the B title left the county.

Little was heard about basketball in that end of the county again until the mid twenties. But it was a quick rebuttal and no formal team was organized.

Because they had no home court, Rogersville enthusiasts soon lost interest in the game.

But they had demonstrated farmers could play basketball.

Steelers Train Again At Alliance College

—Pittsburgh—

Alliance College in Cambridge Springs, Pa., again was selected as the training site for the Pittsburgh Steelers football team, according to a joint announcement made by team officials and Judge Blair G. Gunther, chairman of the board of trustees at the college.

The club first went to Alliance in 1947 when the late Dr. John B. (Jock) Sutherland was head coach. The following year his successor and current head coach, John Micholosen, took his first pro club there. He has continued to do so for the past three campaigns.

Patrons of the Waynesburg, along with more than 42,000 other Post Offices, found a new and more convenient money order available last Monday morning, according to Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson. Principal changes in the new money order system makes it possible to have a money order cashed at any of the nation's post offices or it may be collected through any bank in the same manner as the depositing or cashing of a check.

Shorthand Notes Send Mand to Jail

North Hollywood, Cal.—A. L. Choals learned that it doesn't pay to cuss at a woman, especially a stenographer who knows shorthand.

Mrs. Lee Hurtado, a 25-year-old blonde secretary, complained that Choals walked into the office where she works and proceeded to curse her roundly. She calmly took down the outburst. Her notes were introduced as evidence at Choals' trial on a peace disturbance charge and he was sentenced to 90 days in jail.

The regulation that money orders must be cashed at specific post offices has been eliminated. Under the old system, it will be recalled, a money order had to be cashed in the office to which it was issued. If it was cashed at a post office in another city an additional fee was charged.

The new money order appears in the form of a punched card instead of the customary paper slip and purchasers fill out the same form and pay the same fees as has been required in the past.

The Postmaster General described the inauguration of the new money order system as the largest single accounting change ever made in postal history and said that the development comes after exhaustive study by the Post Office Department, the General Accounting Office, the Treasury Department and the Federal Reserve Board.

The Department urges users to remember that the new money orders must not be folded, stapled, spindled or mutilated in any way since they are to be issued on punch cards and processed by machinery.

All new money orders will clear Federal Reserve Banks in the same manner as Treasury checks or other cash items. The Federal Reserve banks will then turn over the paid money orders to the proper regional Post Offices.

The new money order system is in keeping with the program to modernize and improve the operation of the postal service, as well as to effect economy and the better to serve the general public.
