Greene County Fair Entries Are Unusually Large

The unusually large number of entries gives indication that the Greene County Fair which opens next Wednesday for a three-day exhibit, will be the best fair in Western Pennsylvania.

The increase in entries of livestock and horses has made it necessary to rent three 30x60 foot tents.

The new floral hall will be ready for exhibits. The macadam floor was laid a few days ago.

All livestock barns and pens have been painted, the grass has been cut, and the race track is in tip top condition.

Water has been installed in all the booths under the rear of the grandstand. These are generally rented to organizations selling food as a benefit.

Fine harness and running races are scheduled. There will be two running races each day and on Wednesday and Friday two harness races, with three sulkies on Thursday.

Al Dull's Orchestra will play each afternoon.

Horse shows will be held Wednesday and Thursday nights. Ninety horses are entered to date with at least six in each class.

Wednesday night the Sunshine Boys, a well known gospel quartet, will present a program. Thursday night's entertainment will be by Stoney Cooper and the Clinch Mountain Boys with Wilma Lee, Crazy Elmer, Buck Graves and Tex King, and on Friday night Cowboy Phil and the Golden West Girls will appear. All are well known radio entertainers.

The fair is sponsored by the Greene County Recreational Municipal Authority.

Attorney Glenn R. Toothman and Miss Louis Fox, both of Waynesburg, are assisting Harry F. Baily with fair arrangements. Heads of departments are: William C. Minor, saddle horses; Jesse Shultz, draft horses; Charles Cummins and Lazaar Eisinger, beef cattle; Wayne Keener, dairy cattle; Carter Andrew, sheep; John Gopen, 4-H Clubs, and Mrs. Irving Rumble, floral hall.

Court Sustained In Trespass Case

The State Superior Court in an order has sustained a ruling by Judge J. I. Hook of the Greene County Court in a trespass action in which John Komlo of Clarksville sued Mrs. Helen Balazick of Mather, for injuries sustained when he fell into a driveway at the Clarksville Eagles Lodge on the night of March 18, 1947. Mrs. Balazick was owner of the building in which the club had rooms.

On December 7, 1949, a jury awarded $1,000 damages to Komlo, but Mrs. Balazick's motion for judgement notwithstanding the verdict on the ground of contributory negligence by the plaintiff was upheld by the Greene County Court, and on appeal Superior Court sustained the County Court.

Fine's Income Tax Bill Buried Legislature Seeks Substitute

The Senate Finance Committee Tuesday wrote finis to Governor John S. Fine's proposed personal income tax.

This puts the Legislature in the position of having to find a substitute tax program to meet the financial demands of Governor Fine's budget, or pare the budget drastically.

The income tax was proposed to bring in $119,000,000. The committee voted, by 10 to 7, against reporting the measure to the Senate floor for a record vote. Governor Fine said last week that the action, whether favorable or unfavorable, would be accepted as final.

The 10 votes against reporting the bill were cast by five Republican income tax rebels and five Democrats who were under instructions of the minority caucus to vote against it. State Chairman M. Harvey

Lad Killed, Other Injured As Bike Crashes

William Roberts, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts of North Waynesburg, was instantly killed Friday morning about 10:40 o'clock when the bicycle on which he and Ronald Porter, 14 years, were riding crashed against a tree on North Richhill street between Second and Third avenues.

Young Porter suffered a fractured skull, and broken nose and jaw. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porter of North Waynesburg.

The boys who lived only a short distance apart on Route 19, were coming to Waynesburg to get a part for William Roberts' bicycle.

Officers stated that Arthur Rettig of Grelton, Ohio, who was driving down the hill ahead of the lads, said he could see them in his mirror and that they were apparently unable to slow down. Mr. Rettig thought the bicycle would crash into the rear of his automobile, then saw it veering as they scraped the curb.

William Roger Roberts was born in Franklin Township, June 1, 1938, a son of Charles Roberts and Florence Dille Roberts.

Martin Says Dewey Hurts Ike's Presidential Bid

Senator Edward Martin said a few days ago he thinks Governor Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, is hurting the Presidential chances of General Eisenhower by becoming so prominent in the Eisenhower-for-President drive so early.

The Senator also lamented that General Eisenhower's duties in Europe are preventing him from stating his views on the political issues to the American people.

While the Senator would not say that he is in the general's corner, and while he denied emphatically that he merely wants to back a winner, he did not sound at all enthusiastic about the candidacy of Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

Senator Martin has twice supported Dewey in presidential nominating conventions, leading the march to Dewey in 1948.

"I would rather take a licking on the issues than win without making issues clear," Senator Martin declared. "I think the most important thing confronting the United States today is the cost of government. That cost must be reduced. The

THE KELLY FAMILY

Apparently two and probably three families of this name settled near Henry Vanmeter's Fort about the close of the Revolution. Robert Kelly obtained a warrant for 187 acres of land situated at the head of the Vanmeter Branch of Swan's Run, and secured a warrant April 12, 1785. His patent was issued to him on March 17, 1786, under the title of "Buffalo Flats". He was probably the Robert Kelly who served in the Eighth Pennsylvania Regiment of the Continental Line with Joseph Gwynne, Gideon and Jeremiah Long, and a number of others who joined this regiment when it was recruited at Fort Pitt. He was probably a brother of William Kelly who, with Thomas Lucas and Henry Snively, served in Captain James Poe's Company of Cumberland County Militia in the arrangement of the year 1782. (Penna. Arch. Series V, Vol. 3, pp. 369-370; Penna. Arch. Series V, Vol. 6, pp. 576, William Kelly.) Robert Kelly died in Greene County, where his will was probated November 9, 1808. (Will Book 1, pp. 73.) His wife, Margaret, was mentioned in his will. On September 29, 1816, she married Daniel Moore. Record of this is found in Jay Thompson's Journal. It is also noted in Orphans' Court Docket 1, pp. 160. In both the will of Robert Kelly and the Orphans' Court Docket, the names of Robert Kelly's children are given. The widow and Thomas Lucas were executors of the will.

Family of Robert and Margaret Kelly

1. Millicent Kelly, married John Vanmeter, born 1769, son of Henry and Martha Vanmeter. They removed about 1800 to Mason County, West Virginia.

5. Ruth Kelly, married Jacob Snively.
6. Rachel Kelly, married Thomas Lawyer.
7. Margaret Kelly, a minor child in 1821.
8. Robert Kelly, only son mentioned in either record.

William Kelly saw much service in the Revolution while living in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. He served in James Poe's Company and also in Thomas Askey's Company. He died at Rices Landing July 14, 1841, at the age of 82 years. His wife, Elizabeth, died there on October 18, 1856, at the age of 79 years 6 months and 21 days. Both have markers in the cemetery at Hewitts Church. The will of William Kelly is in Will Book 2, pp. 141 and was probated July 24, 1841. It was witnessed by Samuel Sharpnack and James Kelly. But two children are mentioned in this will.

Soon after this service they removed to the Tenmile Country, where Timothy Prior took title to 75 acres of land near the head of Coal Run on the Jefferson-Cumberland Township line, and had this land warranted to him September 6, 1796. His brother, Nathan Prior, died before this date leaving an estate which was placed in the hands of his brothers Timothy and John Prior as guardians for his minor children. (Washington County O. C. Docket 1, pp. 107.) His wife was Abigail (Ross?)

ABIJAH MCCLAIN

It would seem that Abijah McClain lived in the vicinity of Elizabeth, Pennsylvania, when he served as a Frontier Ranger in Captain Richard Johnson's Company of Westmoreland County Militia. Prior to that time he had served in the Eighth Pennsylvania Regiment of the Continental Line, when that Regiment took part in the Battles of Brandywine, Germantown, and Saratoga. He drew a pension for his service as shown by the list of pensioners in the 1840 Census.

Abijah McClain was born in 1754 and died at Rices Landing July 11, 1848. He married Pamela Doughty, one of the six daughters of Edward Doughty, who warranted the tract of land between Thomas Blackledge and the Monongahela River, under the name of "Pigeon's Resort." She was born March 17, 1759, and died January 5, 1833. Both are buried in the cemetery on the hill above Rices Landing, overlooking the Monongahela River.

About 1792, Abijah McClain began buying out the heirs of Edward Doughty in order to obtain a full title to "Pigeon's Resort." The six daughters, including Pamela, wife of Abijah McClain; Mary, wife of James McCreary of Brownsville; Martha, wife of James Blackburn; Eleanor, wife of Samuel West; Ruth and Rebecca Doughty, sold their claims, while Enoch Enoch, John Wright, and Jesse Bumgarner, gave quit claim deeds for some interests they had in the property. Abijah McClain then proceeded to lay out a number of lots on this land it later becoming a part of Rices Landing.

When Abijah McClain died at the age of 94 years, a number of his children had died before him. His will notes this circumstance. (Will Book 3, pp. 36.) It was proven July 24, 1848.

Children of Abijah and Pamela (Doughty) McClain

1. James McClain.
2. John McClain, born October 18, 1791, died April 17, 1848; married, September 4, 1812, Phoebe Swan, daughter of Charles and Sarah (Vanneter) Swan. Phoebe was born March 17, 1791, and died March 16, 1856. They removed to Knox County, Ohio, in 1828.

No Vacation from Safety!

This is the time of year when more cars are on the road—the time of year, also, when you drive more miles.

Youngsters are on vacation from school. So when you drive—WATCH OUT FOR CHILDREN.

In the City: There are playgrounds, but many children play in the streets or close to traffic. They should not, but they do, and you—the driver—must face the facts. You must be doubly alert lest you run down a child who, in the excitement of play, darts like a flash into the street.

In the Country: Boys and girls will ride bicycles along the road, or walk to favorite fishing or swimming holes. Drive carefully.

Our children will enjoy a safe vacation if you—the driver—bear in mind that THERE IS NO VACATION FROM SAFETY!

$786,267,000 for the Navy and camps and other installations in this country. Secret projects are also included in their programs.

Farmwives Help Spur Development Of Food Preservation Appliances

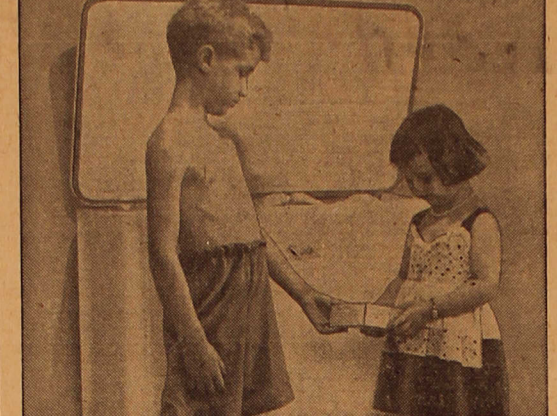

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

When it comes to food, the farm-wife is an authority. Not only does she help produce it, but—so far as her family is concerned—she is in sole charge of its preparation and preservation.

Few can tell farmwives much about gardening, and only a recognized culinary expert would dare venture retain their flavor and vitamins in the freezer.

In these busy days, farmwives must plan ahead. When they find themselves with an extra hour or two to spare, they can cook double—or triple
—the quantity of food needed for one meal and freeze and store the extra portions for later use. Such items as soup, appetizers, steaks, meat pies, pot roast, chicken fricassee, home baked

TRIPLE PLAY—From freezer to Billy to Linda.

an observation about their cooking.
They reign supreme in both fields.
Therefore, it's only in the matter of preservation that there may be some hope of rating a farmwife's attention. So let's talk about farm and home freezers—the latest in a growing list of appliances which are being put to use in rural homes.

Farmwives had much to do with spurring the development of freezers, and for good reason. For freezers eliminate the hard job of canning, much of which must be done on hot summer days. Their use also speeds up the food preservation task. For example, a bushel of vegetables, fresh from the garden, can be processed and placed in the freezer in about an hour's time. That's easier than spending more than twice the time canning the same amount of food. As for meats, poultry and fish—little attention, other than being wrapped correctly, is required. In all cases, foods

beans and their own covered dish specialty are perfect "freezer items."
Farmwives who bake their own bread, can increase the recipe, freeze half the baked loaves one week and forget about it the next.

Packaging of freezer food, however,
must be done carefully. The wrapper or carton used must be moisture and vapor proof. And, for liquid or semi-liquid products, water-tight as well.
Included among materials which provide adequate protection are moisture-proof vegetable parchment paper, moisture-proof cellophane (which can be heat-sealed), aluminum foil, cellophane-lined containers, freezer bags and approved cartons.
Naturally, you can't expect freezing to improve quality. You get out of your freezer only what you put in.
A tough, stringy piece of meat or a carton of sub-par berries will be no better two or three months from now than they are today.

Elizabeth to Be Truman's Guest

Princess Elizabeth and Prince Phillip announced Friday they "have accepted with pleasure" an invitation from President Truman to be his guests on a visit to the United States this October.

An announcement from Clarence House, residence of the young couple, said they would visit Washington October 24 to 26.

The trip to Washington will follow a state tour of Canada. It was not yet known whether Elizabeth and Phillip would visit any other American cities.

It will be the first American visit for both Elizabeth, 25, mother of two children, and the 30-year-old Phillip, who has just given up a sea career to help his wife in her rigid routine of public duties.

Elizabeth was only 13 when her parents, King George and Queen Elizabeth, ate hot dogs at Hyde Park with the late President Roosevelt during their pre-war visit to the United States.
She once told American friends
how she listened enthralled to her parents' accounts of that visit, and ever since it has been her dream to make the trip herself.

Dog Ties Up Boston Subway

A big mongrel dog took a trip through the rapid transit tunnel
from South Station to Charles Street last week—on foot—as scores of patrons stared in wide-eyed disbelief.

The wolf-gray canine leaped into the train pit at South Station and set off at a fast clip into the dark tunnel. It sped more than a mile through three stations and was headed over the West Boston Bridge when it became trapped between running and guard rails.

Trains were delayed seven minutes while police attempted to free the animal. It finally worked itself loose and leaped against the live third rail.

The electric shock subdued the dog and it was taken to the Animal Rescue League.

Grange Fights Colored Oleo

—Harrisburg—

The Pennsylvania State Grange has set the record straight: It still is adamantly against any legislation to permit
the sale of pre-colored oleomargarine.

Joab K. Mahood, secretary of the grange, said farm organizations will fight the two oleo bills
put into the House and Senate
last week with administration support and a good chance of passage.

"We were not even consulted on these bills," Mr. Mahood said.
"Our position is that any legislation legalizing the manufacture and sale of yellow oleo in the state would be in violation of the pure food laws of Pennsylvania.
"We are going to ask for a hearing on these bills."

Two oleo bills to permit the sale of colored margarine for household consumption only were dumped unexpectedly into the House and Senate Agriculture Committees Thursday.

Spot of Oil Tells of Well

—Kimball, Nebraska—

When Kimball County's first oil well was brought in this week the Western Nebraska observer, Kimball's weekly newspaper, felt that mere words couldn't do justice to the news.
The publishers solved their problem by putting a spot of oil
from the new well on the front page of each newspaper so subscribers could see for themselves.

Still Rebels

Those Republicans who are looking for a slogan for 1952
may take note of the one now being used by some Birmingham, Ala., women, no doubt the States' rights sort.
The Birmingham women have banded into the "Three-H Club."
What does the "Three-H"
stand for? Simple: "Hurry Harry Home."

Fifty-Year History of Greene County Sports

By GEORGE N. THOMAS

CARMICHAELS BASKETBALL INDEPENDENTS

Word got around Carmichaels at the beginning of the 1912-13 season that Carl Biddle, just out of Waynesburg College, was forming an independent basketball team.

After graduation, McHenry was signed as the first athletic coach at Cumberland High. He organized the boys and in his spare time played brilliantly with the independents.

He was the sparkplug that caused his alma mater, Waynesburg College, to go full strength on two occasions to barely nip his team.

And when the Legion post sponsored the team, he continued to star.

Another independent team in the community called themselves the Carmichaels' Darrachs. They stayed together only a short time, however. Mt. Joy, Crago, Condit, Warne, Ramsey and Brooks led them.

It was bad news for Carmichaels when McHenry returned to Waynesburg in 1925 to play with Tilton Tire Independents.

Although he didn't beat them out of the '25 championship, he played a big hand in keeping them from it.

Tilton's didn't win it either, because after each team had won once, the rest of the five-game series was forgotten.

The real blow to Carmichaels came in mid-January 1926 with a startling announcement. Because of loss of attendance at high school Coach Venen's teams, the independents disbanded.

Besides, they couldn't get good players for a winning team, they said.

But the Carmichaels Firemen were not to be denied. They gathered together Neil, Randolph, Ruth, Condit, Nevin, McMillen and Coach Venen, and went on to a fine 1926-27 slate.

To further prove their ability, the Firemen captured senior honors in the Carmichaels Independent Tourney.

But that was their best year. They never reached such heights again.

As the twenties ended, independent basketball in Carmichaels had seen its better days. Darby Venen had introduced a fresher brand of the cage sport. And the fans went for it.

Still a Surgeon At Eighty-Two

Dr. Louise Paine Tingley is 82 years old and after fifty years is still a capable surgeon without a tremor in her hands. Remarkable is the word colleagues use to describe this tiny lady who has practiced medicine in Boston and Providence for fifty years.

Dr. Tingley, herself, doesn't think it so remarkable, although she's proud that she put herself through Tufts Medical School with money saved from ten years of teaching school in Providence.

State Eliminates 'Thru' on Stop Signs

—Harrisburg—

A stop sign will say nothing but "stop" in Pennsylvania after June 1, 1952. Governor John S. Fine signed a measure eliminating the words "thru traffic" from the highway signs after that date.

SIDNEY STEINBERG (36)

FBI Wants Him

Sidney Steinberg, Assistant National Labor Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, who was indicted by a Federal Grand Jury at New York City on June 20, 1951, on a charge of conspiracy to advocate the violent overthrow of the government, is being sought as a fugitive from justice by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The FBI has requested the citizens and the law enforcement agencies to assist in locating Steinberg.

He Thinks Name Was Misconstrued

—Edinburgh—

Major Robert N. A. Scott, organizing secretary, is proud of his "Thistle Foundation," which has just built a group of cottages at Craigmiller, Edinburgh, for disabled Scotch ex-servicemen.

He didn't know whether his leg was being pulled or not, however, he told a women's luncheon club, when a Glasgow University girl said she thought the Thistle Foundation was "a form of co-set."

'Miss Korea' Plays Havoc With GIs

—Tokyo—

"Miss Korea 1951" is the only female with the Fifth Cavalry Regiment in Korea. She has caused no end of communication snarls.

Things got so bad the Private First Class Norman Bates, Weber City, Utah, lineman, wrote the mess sergeant: "When are we having steak? Miss Korea's available."

Miss Korea—a cow—likes to top off a dinner of grass with a few yards of telephone wire.

Princess Elizabeth May Get Island

Officials said this week that Princess Elizabeth might be given one of the thousands of islands in the Strait of Juan de Fuca when she visits Canada this fall.

A suggestion that one of the islands be made a royal gift has been going the rounds since word was received from London that the Princess and Prince Philip would come to Canada in October.

Wild Ducks Nest In Chicago Fountain

A wild duck family has taken up residence in Buckingham fountain in Great Park along Chicago's busy lake front.

Frank Daly, engineer at the fountain, has named the mallard mother duck Myrtle. He said Myrtle and her eight ducklings are attracting as much attention as the huge fountain display.

Myrtle apparently hatched her brood nearby and led them to the fountain. They are well supplied with food by spectators.

Old Documents To Be Preserved

—Washington—

The priceless originals of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, now on exhibit in the Library of Congress, will soon be transferred to new hermetically sealed glass cases designed to prevent further deterioration.

The Library, the Joint Congressional Committee on the Library and the Bureau of Standards announced that a new means of protecting the historic documents had been perfected.

After 10 years of research the bureau developed a sealed, helium-filled glass case, which is expected to preserve the documents indefinitely.

The deterioration has been slow, but for several years Library officials have been gravely concerned over the eroding effect of polluted air upon the parchment and the ink.

In a letter to Senator Theodore F. Green (D., R. I.), chairman of the Joint Library Committee President Truman congratulated the Bureau of Standards and the Library of Congress for developing means of protecting "these treasured documents from deterioration or damage while permitting them to be exhibited to the American public."
