Edward M. Brubaker, 96 years, widely known resident and sports enthusiast, who for many years had been crier for the Greene County Courts, died Christmas Sunday morning, December 25, 1955, in Hillsville Clinic, Washington.

Mr. Brubaker had fractured a hip about four years ago in a fall from a ladder while training vines on a porch. Since that time he had been in failing health and became seriously ill only a few weeks ago.

Mr. Brubaker was a son of Eli and Anna Warren Brubaker, and was born October 6, 1859, at Salem, Marion County, Illinois. He attended Lincoln College and was its oldest living graduate. Several years ago Mr. Brubaker received a citation from the college commending him for his inspiration of clean, vigorous living.

As a young man, Mr. Brubaker was employed in the mailing room of the Pennsylvania Stockman and Farmer of which his brother-in-law, Edward S. Bayard, later became editor.

Mr. Brubaker had resided in Waynesburg since 1907. He was first employed in the office of the Philadelphia Gas Company, now the Equitable Gas Company.

Later Mr. Brubaker and his son, Bayard, operated a shoe store in the old Downey House building which was destroyed by fire in 1926.

He was appointed court crier by Judge A. H. Sayers and continued through the terms of Judge Challen W. Waychoff and Judge J. I. Hook.

As a college student, Mr. Brubaker was an amateur champion wrestler in Illinois.

When Mr. Brubaker was in his early 60s he helped to organize the Greene County Country Club

He possessed a keen sense of humor and his walk and manner belied his years.

Thieves made an unsuccessful attempt to break into the Pennsylvania Liquor Store at High and Richhill streets Thursday night.

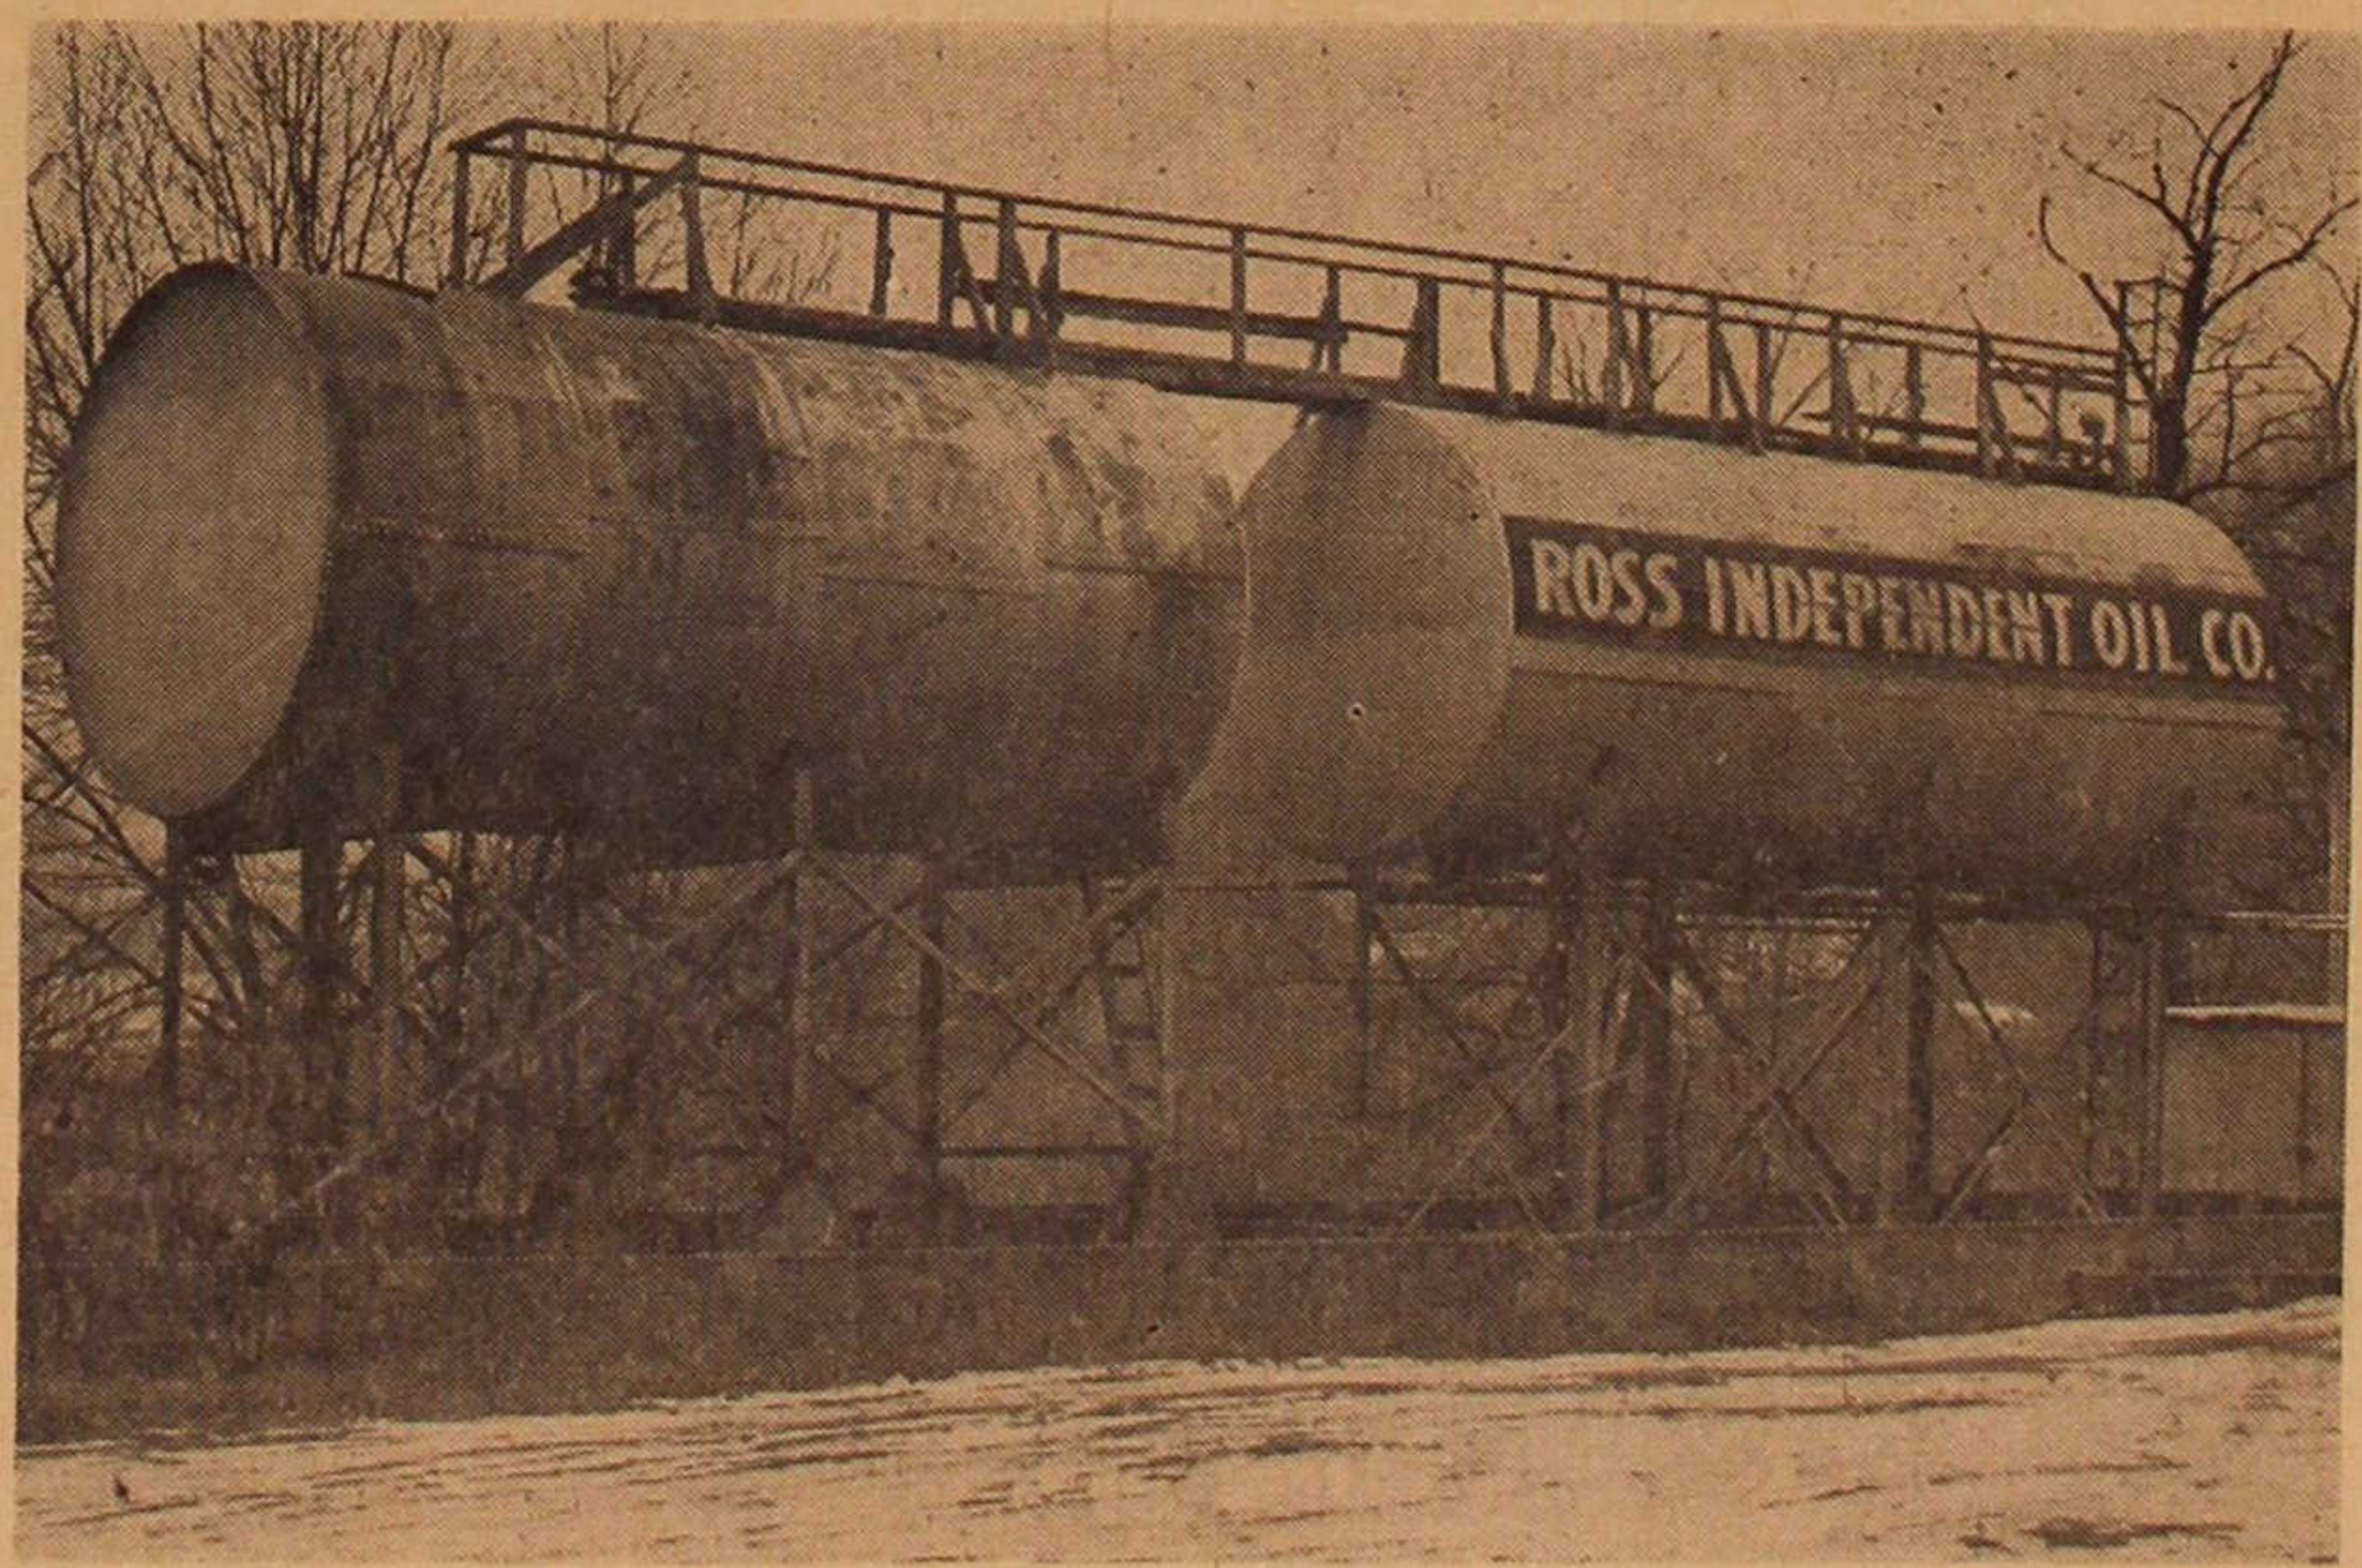

Attempts had been made to enter both the front and side doors and the lock had been smashed on the front.

Sheriff Thomas Boyd and the borough police investigated.

Sheriff Boyd stated that he was driving home about 2 o'clock and noticed the light in the rear of the building was not burning. He drove around the block and trained the lights of his car on the building, but saw nothing wrong. He probably frightened the burglars away.

Reproduction of Minutes Of the Redstone Baptists

(Editor's Note: This is a series of articles on the minutes of the Redstone Baptist Association, beginning with the first meeting at Goshen Church in 1776. The minutes are in possession of Mrs. Raymond McRoberts of Coal Center. We were given a copy through the courtesy of Mrs. Laura Elms Morris and Mrs. Harold A. Russell, both of Waynesburg, who transcribed them. Spelling, abbreviations, and punctuation, in every instance, are exactly as in the original copy. Redstone Baptist Association is credited with being the first church of that faith west of the Alleghenies, and covered parts of what is now Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, and West Virginia. These records prove that many of the first families in what is now Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio, were direct descendants of those Welshmen who procured 30,000 acres of land from William Penn and called them the "Welsh Tract." Here, in 1703, they built a Baptist Church near Inn Hill. This was one of the five original churches that formed the Philadelphia Baptist Association, the oldest in America.)

Loofbury preached from Exodus 34th, 6 and 7, and the moderator concluded the service with a general exhortation, and adjourned the meeting to Monday morning at nine o'clock.

6th. Met pursuant to adjournment for business, when the following resolutions were agreed upon—First. Resolved to admit the Church at Roaring Creek a member of the Association—2nd. Resolved that the next yearly meeting be held at Philadelphia, on Big Redstone Creek, on Saturday before the first Lords Day in June 1798. Our Brethren Corbly, Stone, Dallas and Spears to attend. Resolved that our next Association be held at Mt. Moriah, on Georges Creek, on the Saturday preceding the last Sabbath in Sept. 1798—Brother Frazier to preach the Introductory Sermon—4th. Resolved that in future the minutes and Circular Letter be printed, and that the several churches order by letter or their messengers what number of copies they may want. Brother Corbly is requested to prepare a Circular Letter for the ensuing year.—5th. Agreed to recommend to the several Churches the propriety of establishing a fund in each church, the produce of which to be applied to any extraordinary case that may occur.—6th. Agreed to recommend to the messengers (and any others that choose to attend) to hold a meeting for prayer, to meet at 9 o'clock on the Lords Day of the Association to implore the Divine Blessing on the preaching, council and advice of the Assembly.

7th. A caution. Whereas, of late sundry persons pretending to be Baptist Ministers, have taken upon them to travel into this part of the country and preach (where they could get admittance) and whose characters are a reproach to the religion we possess, we therefore, earnestly recommend to the several churches to be very cautious in admitting strangers to preach among them, except they come well recommended, or have satisfactory credentials.

8th. Query from Salem—Is it consistent with Gospel, and Regular Baptist order (or is it deviating from our faith and practice) for a church to exclude from their communion day any particular member of another church, while his standing is good in the Church he belongs to? Answered in the affirmative, because the negative would entirely destroy the independence of the churches, and make one church subject to the judgement of another.

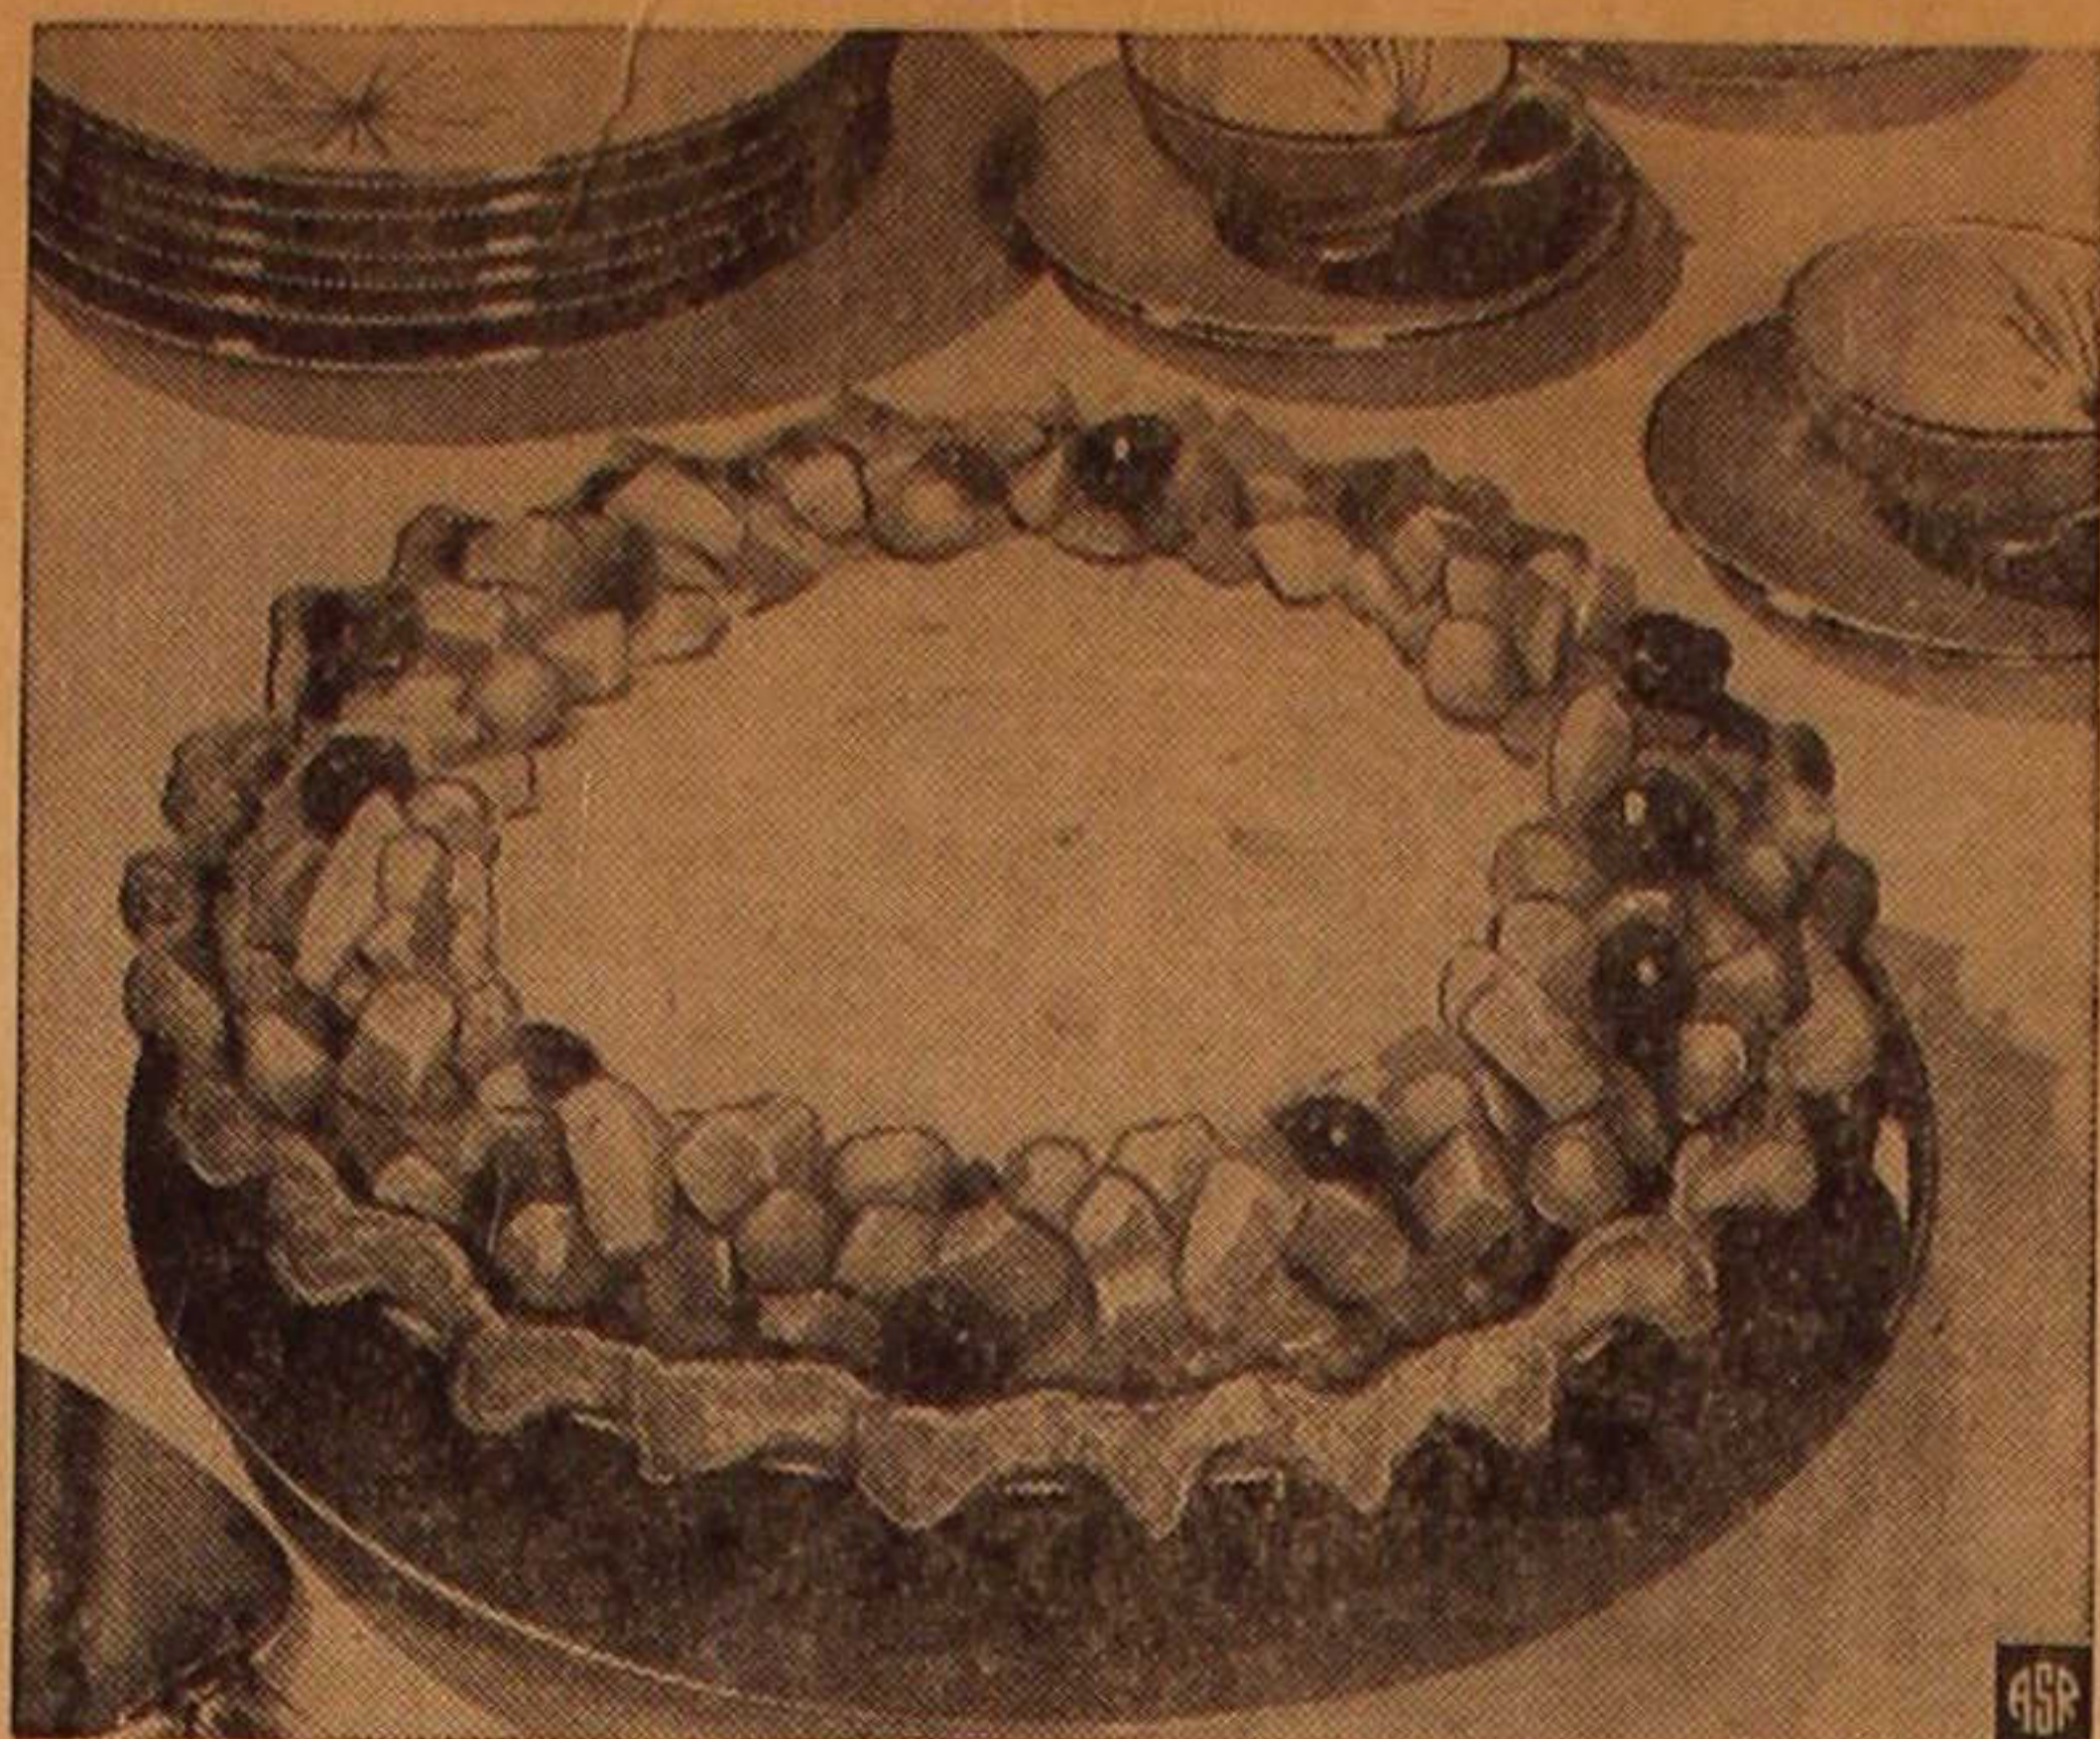

9th. Second query from Salem—Will it consist with our Lord's Law respecting offences, Mat. 19 from 15th to 20th verses, for a member of a Church to carry into the Church a complaint of offence against a Brother or a Sister without making any previous effort or trial to claim that member on pretense that the offence was publick? Answer—If the offence is really publick the law referred to above, does not allude to it as it treats only of private offences. Besides, we are commanded, 1st Timothy 5, 20th, to rebuke before all such as sin in publick, nor in that case in private admonition necessary or expedient.

10th. The Circular Letter composed by our Brother David Loofburrow was read, approved and ordered to be printed with the minutes.

11th. Prayer and singing at the usual intervals. Adjourned till next year.

Fruited Eggnog Pie For Holidays

A holiday dinner progresses to its dessert climax with wonderful eggnog chifion pie. The pie filling calls for commercial eggnog and fruit cocktail, and gains height and airiness with unflavored gelatine. Trimmed with holly wreath gaiety, this dessert ends the meal on a light note.

Commercial eggnog, a rich blending of eggs and milk, yields a ready-made custard base for chifion pie fillings. Heavy cream for velvety smoothness and the fruit cocktail interest of diced peaches, pears, pineapple, grapes and cherry are then added. The fruit and custard filling gain lightness of texture through the use of unflavored gelatine. This holiday chifion pie, despite its beautiful appearance, can be simply made. The crust is easy, too, when one uses a packaged mix.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| Fruit Cocktail Eggnog Pie | |
| 1 envelope unflavored gelatine | 1 cup whipping cream, whipped |
| 1/4 cup sugar | 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla |
| 1/4 teaspoon salt | 1/4 teaspoon almond extract |
| 2 cups commercially prepared eggnog | 1 can (29 ounces) fruit cocktail, thoroughly drained |
| | 1 baked 9-inch pie shell |

Mix gelatine, sugar and salt. Gradually stir in eggnog. Warm over direct low heat until gelatine is dissolved. Chill until mixture mounds when dropped from spoon. Fold in whipped cream, flavorings, 1 1/2 cups drained fruit cocktail. Chill again until mixture mounds. Heap into baked pie shell. Decorate with remaining fruit cocktail. Chill 2 to 4 hours.

Mayflower Gets Famous Skipper

—London—
The Mayflower, a copy of the ship used by the Pilgrims and now being built in Britain for a voyage next year to the United States, has a new captain.

He is Commander Alan John Villiers, world-famous Australian sailor and author, who, as skipper of the sailing vessel Joseph Conrad, took his ship 52,000 miles around the world in 1934. His books include "The Sea in Ships" and the best-seller, "The Cruise of the Conrad."

Commander Villiers said the sailing date of the Mayflower, scheduled to leave England next July 4, Independence Day, with a volunteer crew of 21 and 30 passengers, may have to be changed because of the possibility of hurricanes at that time of year.

'Rose of Texas' Heard in Church

—Omaha—
The amplifying system somehow got crossed with a radio beam during a Sunday morning worship at the Wheeler Presbyterian Church. As a result the strains of "The Yellow Rose of Texas" boomed out over the loud-speaker right in the middle of the service.

Cheap Skates

—Yonkers, N. Y.—
A burglar, who found only $25 while ransacking a plastics firm office here, penned this note to the management before departing: "What a bunch of cheap skates! Next time have more money for me and I won't dirty your place so. Thank you. See you soon."

Pennsylvania State University To Give Short Courses In General Farming

The College of Agriculture of Pennsylvania State University will again offer four-week short courses for persons interested in general farming, dairy farming, and livestock farming. Any person 16 years of age or older and interested in these agricultural fields may enroll.

The General Farming short course will be offered from January 4 to February 1, 1956. The Dairy Farming and Livestock Farming short courses will run simultaneously from February 1 to 29, 1956.

These short courses, which are taught by the faculty of the College of Agriculture, have proven very popular over the years both for persons experienced in farming and for those who were just starting to farm. Classes are made as practical as possible and much instruction is conducted in the laboratories, shops, and barns of the University.

In the General Farming course, the following subjects are emphasized: Farm Machinery and Tractors; Farm Management; Farm Mechanics; Forage Crops and Pastures; Grain Crops; Poultry Farming; Rural Economics and Social Problems; and Soils and Fertilizers.

The five breeds of cattle in the University dairy barns and the laboratories in the dairy building provide excellent facilities for making the Dairy Farming short

Do-It-Yourself Plane Drives Like Auto

Ever since the Wright Brothers made the first airplane flight over fifty years ago men have been trying to perfect a machine that anyone can fly. Now in one master stroke Cessna has done it.

This amazing new airplane known as the Cessna 172 has been under development as a well kept secret. Its announcement has been withheld until the manufacturer could tool up for production. All this work has been completed—engineering, test flying, tooling, CAA certification. The first one off the production line was just delivered to the Pittsburgh area Cessna dealer, Alfred B. Bennett. It is now based at Bennett's headquarters at Beaver County Airport, Beaver, Pa., where it is available for demonstration by appointment. Demonstrations can also be arranged through Floyd Stockdale, Greene County Airport, Waynesburg.

The Cessna 172 can be flown on first flight by anyone who can drive a car. You simply drive it onto the runway, give it the gas and when the speedometer reads over 40 simply raise the nose and you are in flight. In the air it handles as easily as on the ground. From then on you drive it like a car. Ease off the gas, put on the brakes and you have landed. This is done at any speed from 40 to 120 miles per hour.

All work and no play makes Jill an old girl. So be good to yourself. Plan time to relax every day. Take up a hobby. Join in church and community affairs. Have a little fun!

How do you find the time? It's easy if you live electrically. Electric servants take the time and tedium out of washing, ironing, cleaning, cooking, dishwashing. Leave you time and energy to do the things that keep you feeling young.

Your electric company works constantly to make sure that you always have plenty of low-price electricity for all the electric helpers you want.

Start the New Year ALIVE

In all the rush and excitement of the holiday season—places to go, parties to attend, people to see—it's so very easy to fall into careless driving habits, or to take chances you'd never dream of at any other time.

Just one careless moment, or one unnecessary risk, can bring tragedy to your home, and to other families. Have fun—but drive with full awareness of the laws of the highway, and of good, sound common sense.

Happy New Year
Remember when the entire family gathered in the "parlor" and, with breathless expectancy, watched the old clock ticking away the expiring moments of the Old Year? At midnight there was a joyful chorus of "Happy New Years," and Grandma and Grandpa smiled tolerantly and reminisced of other New Years before you were born. Remember?
Plans and arrangements in strict accord with your wishes is always our first thought in your time of sorrow.

Miss Mary Hoge Has Book of Poems Just Off the Press

MISS MARY HOGE

Mary Rinehart Hoge of Waynesburg R. D. 1, is the author of a new book of verse "Calm Now the Heart," published December 29 by Exposition Press of New York.

The author was born in Morgan Township and was educated at the State Normal School, California, Pennsylvania, where she received her teaching certificate; at West Virginia University, where she earned a bachelor's degree, and at the University of Pittsburgh, where she earned her master's degree.

Miss Hoge taught in the rural schools of Greene County and the grade schools of Morgantown, and at the Charleroi High School. For the past twenty years she taught at Alderson-Broadus College, Philippi, W. Va.

She now resides at the family home near Waynesburg, and devotes her time to writing and to her organizational activities.

She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Alpha Theta, the American Association of University Women, the Philippi Woman's Club, and the Barbour County Historical Society.

"Calm Now the Heart," is Miss Hoge's first published book of poetry.

The book is dedicated to Miss Belle Rinehart, her cousin, whom she says, "made an awkward duckling feel like a swan."

The poems are in the order in which they were written, the first being the requirement for membership in the English club in West Virginia University. Most of the others were written at Alderson-Broadus College in Philippi, "the little Baptist College I loved."

One poem, "Pink Rabbit," tells of a child's toy which was saved from the fire which destroyed Colonial Place, the Rinehart home, because it was carefully wrapped and packed away in a walnut highboy. It symbolizes, "Enduring memories of warmth of home, Of courage, struggle, love and loveliness."

In other verses, Miss Hoge says:

"I like to dream of pansies; "They make me think of people who are gentle, and kind and true."

All evoke a gentle mood for reflective reading.

State Eases School Pinch

The way was clear Friday for easing the financial pinch of schools throughout the state following the signing of a 561 million dollar school appropriation by Governor Leader.

Leader signed the measure into law Thursday and the Public Instruction Department immediately made ready to issue requisitions for 130 million dollars in checks to go first to hardest-hit districts.

Dr. Ralph C. Swan, acting superintendent of public instruction, said he expected initial checks to be in the mail within two weeks.

In signing the bill, Leader emphasized that money to finance the huge appropriation—one of the largest in the history of the commonwealth—is still forthcoming.

To meet urgently distressed cases, the state plans to use money from existing taxes and, if necessary, to borrow money from highway funds.

Waynesburg Virtually Assured AAU National Wrestling Tourney in 1957

Waynesburg, long regarded as the center of wrestling in this district, has been virtually assured that the national wrestling tournament of the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) will be held here in January 1957.

Impetus for staging the AAU mat event in Greene County was given by the Waynesburg Optimist Club, which placed a guarantee bid of $1,200 at a recent meeting of the national board.

Results of a survey of hotel and restaurant facilities for fans, quarters for athletes and a site for the tournament, accompanied by the bid, which was directed to the board's attention by Rex Peery, mat coach at the University of Pittsburgh. Peery is a national AAU director.

It is expected that more than 200 contestants and some 4,000 out-of-town fans will converge on Waynesburg if the town is selected as the tourney site.

Prospects of the four-day event being held here hinge principally on a "gentlemen's agreement," an arrangement that obligated the directors to select Tulsa, Oklahoma as the 1956 tourney site, despite the fact that the Waynesburg guarantee bid was higher.

The directors extended the same "gentlemen's agreement" to the Waynesburg Optimists for the 1957 tourney. In the past this has been tantamount to an actual contract.

Included in the herds of contestants will be the best collegiate, athletic club and military service teams, as well as the top individual mat performers in the country.

The AAU tournament is conducted on a round-robin arrangement with the Olympic style of wrestling being required of all contestants. The duration of the event depends on the number of contestants. Another day of the tourney is devoted exclusively to the Greco-Roman style.

Area Matmen Competing in Wilkes Tourney

A number of grapplers from Washington and Greene Counties in addition to a Waynesburg College matman from DuBois, are competing in the annual Wilkes College Tournament now underway at Wilkes Barre.

This year the Wilkes Tournament will be one of the largest in the history of wrestling with more than 200 individual matmen in competition.

The Waynesburg College contingent, under the leadership of Coach "Bucky" Murdock, is composed of Joe Ayersman, 115, of Waynesburg; Joe Nicoletta, 137, of Washington; Paul Abraham, 157, and Mike Panteley, 191, both of Canonsburg; Frank Kowalski, 157, of Burgettstown, and Bill Rensel, 147, of DuBois.

Three members of the squad which will represent the University of Pittsburgh hail from Washington County—two of them graduates of Canonsburg High School.

Bill Hulings of Canonsburg, a 123-pounder, and Ed DeWitt of Washington, a 167-pounder, both won titles in their respective divisions last year. Another Canonsburg product, Vic DeFelicce, will wrestle at 137 pounds.

Another district representative is heavyweight Carmen Sensky of Washington, who will wrestle under the banner of West Virginia University.

Dates Set for Wheeling Racing

—Charleston, W. Va.—

The West Virginia State Racing Commission has approved certain meeting dates for the state's three race tracks, but at the same time rejected two winter dates asked by the Charles Town track.

Three requested dates for Wheeling Downs were approved. They are: April 21 through May 26; July 14 through September 14, and October 20 through November 17.

Commission Chairman Ralph Leport of Wheeling said the dates rejected at Charles Town were January 21 through March 7, and November 24 through December 22.

It was the first time, he said, that a January date had been requested in the state.

Both dates were rejected because the commission felt January and December would be unfavorable times for both jockeys and horses; because patrons would be endangered in travel to and from the track, and because of a feeling that the state would lose revenue due to poor attendance, Lepore said.

Instead, Lepore said, the commission offered the dates of February 4 through March 24, "although we think that's a little early," and November 10 through December 15.

Definitely approved for Charles Town was a meeting for June 30 through August 7, and a horse show August 8 through August 14.

A date requested by Waterford Park for May 19 through July 21, also was rejected because it would conflict with a meeting date at Wheeling Downs.

Instead the commission recommended that Waterford hold its 40-day meeting May 28 through July 12, with the option, if it chooses, to re-open September 17 through October 17.

Steve Smogiec hit for 14 tallies, and Ron Pezzoin netted 13 points for the Bulldogs. High men for the Raiders, in addition to Chastain, were Gary Milliken with 16 points and Cal Hill who flipped in 10 markers.

Schoolboy Football Deaths Decrease

—Chicago—

Prep football fatalities ran far below the 10-year average in 1955, according to a survey completed by the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations.

The federation said that about 660,000 high school students played football and the number of fatalities resulting from injuries was six.

"This shows an incidence of .9 per 100,000 players," said H. V. Porter, executive secretary. "The average incidence for the past 10 years is 1.34. According to various statistical bureaus the approximate number of fatal injuries for this age group in general activities not associated with football is about 40 per 100,000."

Columbia Acquires Rare Indian Bible

A rare copy of the Bible in the language of the Massachusetts Bay Colony Indians has been acquired by the Columbia University Libraries.

In announcing the acquisition, Dr. Richard H. Logsdon, director of the Columbia Libraries, said the New Testament was printed in 1661, and the Old Testament in 1663, making the Algonquin-language volume the first Bible in any language to be published in what is now the United States. The book was the gift of Mrs. Seth Low Pierrepont of Ridgefield, Conn.

Since the Algonquin-speaking tribes possessed no written language, the Bible had to be rendered phonetically, English letters being used to form Indian words. Referred to as the "Eliot Indian Bible," the work was planned and carried to completion by the Rev. John Eliot, who is said to have employed it in Christianizing the New England natives.

Andres Segovia, Famous Guitarist, With Symphony

ANDRES SEGOVIA

Andres Segovia, the world's foremost guitarist, comes to Pittsburgh Friday evening, December 30, for a return engagement with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra at Syria Mosque. It was exactly a year ago that Segovia, in his first appearance as soloist with the symphony, wove a spell over the capacity audience at Syria Mosque that won for him one of the largest ovations ever accorded an artist here.

"This Friday, he will play the 'Concierto del Sur' by Manuel Ponce, composed especially for Segovia. William Steinberg will also conduct the American premiere performance of a Symphonic Serenade for Strings, by the contemporary German composer, Erich Korngold. Completing the program will be Tschalkowsky's Capriccio Italien, Stravinsky's Fireworks and Scherzo a la Russe, and the overture to 'The Flying Dutchman' by Wagner.

Immediately following this Friday's concert, William Steinberg, musical director of the Pittsburgh Symphony, will take his annual six weeks leave of absence to conduct the leading orchestras of Europe. He will take the reins of the Pittsburgh Symphony again on February 17. During his absence the orchestra will be conducted by Associate Conductor Karl Kritz, and guest conductors Virgil Thomson, Fernando Previtali and Edward Van Beinum.

It is just twenty-eight years since the courtly and benign Spanish guitarist, Andres Segovia, played his first concerts in the United States and astounded the audiences that gathered to hear him with his Paganini-like virtuosity on a little-known instrument. Reporting on that first New York recital, the Herald-Tribune said that "the Schubertian young man" played "very likely the first guitar recital ever given in New York" and went on to describe the event as "one of the most extraordinary and engrossing recitals of music that has ever taken place in a New York concert hall."

Fred Waring Again Heads Cancer Drive

Fred Waring, famous choral director and television star, will serve as Campaign Chairman for the 1956 Cancer Crusade to be conducted next April throughout Pennsylvania by the American Cancer Society.

This announcement was made in Harrisburg by James M. Brittain, Pennsylvania Division President. "Mr. Waring, who served as head of the 1955 educational and fund raising Cancer Crusade is the first man to serve twice as State Chairman for the Cancer Crusade," Mr. Brittain stated.

"Last year's campaign was the most successful in the history of The American Cancer Society," Mr. Brittain said. "Under Chairman Waring, the people of Pennsylvania contributed more than $1,432,000 to the fight against cancer. Even this record breaking total must be exceeded during the April Crusade if we are to meet the needs of the State's annual toll of 85,000 cases. We are trying to solve the problem with the American Cancer Society's three-pronged program of service for cancer patients, cancer research and cancer education," Mr. Brittain stated.

Frederic Malcolm Waring, one of the Commonwealth's best known native sons, was born in Tyrone. He now makes his home at Shawnee-on-Delaware where some 700 choral directors visit his Choral Workshop each summer to study with him and his staff of world-famous Waring techniques of choral music and its direction.

As head of Fred Waring Enterprises, Inc., his businesses include, in addition to the Choral Workshop, operation of the Shawnee Inn and Country Club and a music publishing firm.
